Worship Services
- Present and/or schedule children’s messages during Sunday morning worship.
- Lead children’s worship activities on the first Sunday of each month.
- Coordinate children’s Christmas Program and Youth Sunday.
- Facilitate youth participation in worship, such as serving as acolytes, lay liturgists, musicians, etc.

Communication and Reporting Duties
- Provide communication between the youth groups and the congregation through notices in the Sunday bulletin and the monthly Ivy Vine newsletter.
- Keep accurate records of all youth program funds.
- Provide a monthly written report to the church council.

Christian Education Board Involvement
- Participate in all Christian Education Board Meetings.
- Work with the board to provide Sunday School, Vacation Bible School, and other congregational education programs.

Qualifications:
- Experience working with children, youth ministry, or within other related fields.
- Displays strong administrative, planning, organizational, and communication skills.
- Ability to work both independently and cooperatively.
- Possesses creativity to develop innovative programming.
- Familiarity with the United Church of Christ theology.
- Affirming of all people, including support of LGBTQ+ community.

Requirements:
- 21 years of age or older.
- Must pass a personal background check.
