COVID-19 MMSC MICROGRANT APPLICATION ROUND 2

Churches that are a part of the United Church of Christ Missouri Mid-South Conference may apply for these grants. Please only submit one application per church. If a church submits multiple applications, they will be notified and will have to resubmit a single application before the deadline. We will be sharing information with the Conference about how churches are using their grants.

For more information about these grants, including a preview of application questions and requirements, please see the introductory letter on the conference website. Online applications are preferred. If you have questions about this application, please contact Andrea Asselmeier, Council President, at asselmeierandrea@emmaushomes.org.

The 2020 COVID-19 Grant Committee:
Paul Emily, Elaine Tebbenkamp, Max Bade, Tom Baynham, Meredith Jackson, Byron Cole, Andrea Asselmeier and Ginny Brown-Daniel.

This microgrant should transform your congregation, and further the mission and vision of your church.

ALL ROUND 2 APPLICATIONS ARE DUE BY MIDNIGHT NOVEMBER 15, 2020

Microgrant details

Up to $500 is available per church. This money should be spent to further your church's mission and vision during COVID-19. We recognize that the needs of local churches vary greatly. If you would like some suggestions of ways you could use this money, please see the introductory letter that details some things that other churches have found helpful.

*How much money are you applying for?

*How would you spend the funds? Please itemize what you would buy, and how much it is. This can be a general estimate.
*In a few sentences (or more, if you would like), how would this grant transform your congregation, and further the mission and vision of your church?

Would you like to be connected to other churches that are using their funds similarly? After announcing the grantees, we will connect churches with similar goals via email, so that they can share resources and support.

○ Yes
○ No

Details, before we go.

(*) What is your church address? Please note that checks will only be made out to churches and mailed directly to churches.

Are there other resources or support that you need during COVID-19? These answers may be shared with other appropriate parties to help meet your needs.
Anything else?

Thank you for your application! We are grateful to be in ministry with you.
